Important Travel Notice

- As per instructions from the Kuwait Immigration Authority (effective 5 November 2025), only passengers who have completed biometric registration will be accepted for travel.
- This applies to all residents and visitors, except GCC citizens visiting Kuwait.
- Passengers aged 18 years and above must obtain Immigration approval before acceptance.
- Biometric status for residents can be verified via the Sahel App.

Important Notice : Cash Declaration Requirement

- In line with the Anti-Money Laundering Law and instructions from the General Administration of Customs, all passengers must declare cash or monetary instruments exceeding KD 3,000 when entering or leaving Kuwait.
- Failure to comply may lead to legal consequences or penalties.
- For further details, please consult the official customs guidelines or contact your nearest customs office.

Food Allergies

We do our best to serve our passengers who suffer from food allergies. Please be aware that we cannot guarantee that the meals on board are nut-free. Nuts may be served on all our flights, either as a meal ingredient or as a snack. Additionally, passengers may bring food on board that contains nuts. Traces of nut residue may pass on the aircraft's surfaces and through the air conditioning system.

For your health & safety if you have a nut allergy, don't hesitate to contact your local Jazeera Airways Office and consider consulting your doctor before your flight date.
